

Transcript for Recycle week – When Lisa met Kevin Kearney, Cheshire East Waste Reduction Volunteer

Lisa: Hello, Im with Kevin Kearney who is a volunteer for Ansa, Cheshire East Waste Reduction Volunteer. Hi Kevin.

Kevin: Hi Lisa

Lisa: Why did you want to become a volunteer and help the environment the way you do for ANSA?

Kevin: I wanted to make a difference and have an impact for future generations. We've made a mess of it so far and it's our children and our grandchildren that are the important people. We've got to make a difference we can't just keep using resources without Any consequences.

Lisa: So you believe it's very important For everyone from Politicians right down to the littlest of children to grasp the importance of saving the environment?

Kevin: Oh absolutely, yes. If I can talk to people who might become an MP or a Doctor or anybody that can affect change. Those people are going to make a change. Like David Attenborough. At this stage in my life I can only affect change by talking to people.

Lisa: It's very very important to do is to talk to people and this is just a great example of how together we recycle more. Thank you.
