Disability: The Disability Discrimination Act of 1995 made it unlawful for employers to discriminate against their employees who are disabled and places a duty on the employer to make reasonable adjustments to enable the employee to undertake the work. The definition in the Act is "People with disabilities are individuals who have, or have had, a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day to day activities". If you do consider yourself to be disabled under the definition in the Act, please indicate this, even if you do not currently need any adjustments to undertake your job.

Do you consider yourself to have a disability? Yes No

Please tell us about any adjustments we may need to make to assist you at interview

Please tell us if there are any dates when you will not be available for interview

Have you any unspent convictions? If so please give details.

If between the completion of this application form and taking up a job with Ansa Environmental Services Ltd you are convicted of a criminal offence you must inform the organisation of this. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action being taken against you and your contract terminated.

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (only complete this section if instructed to do so on the Job Description and Person Specification enclosed with this form)

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act allows for a person who has been convicted of a criminal offence involving a sentence of not more than 2½ years imprisonment and who has since lived trouble free for a specified period of time (related to the severity of the offence) to be treated as if the offence, conviction or sentence had never occurred. This is known as a spent conviction*.

The job for which you are applying is one of those to which the provisions of the above Act in relation to spent convictions*, do not apply. You must, therefore, disclose whether you have any previous convictions*, whether or not they are spent.

Should you identify that you have a criminal conviction*, this will be discussed in confidence at interview. However you should note that only convictions* that are relevant to the job in question will be taken into account.

Do you have any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not "protected" as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013) by SI 2013 1198?

Yes No

Please Note before Completing

Certain spent convictions* are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account by a recruitment manager. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these convictions* can be found at the following link; please read before completing this question:

http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukxi/2013/1198/pdfs/ukxi_20131198_en.pdf

including cautions, reprimands or warnings

If yes please state:

If you do not disclose any conviction* you have it could lead to your application being rejected, or, if you are appointed, may lead later to your dismissal.

People who have convictions* will be treated fairly and given every opportunity to establish their suitability for the job.

Any information that you give will be kept in strict confidence and will be used only in respect of your application for this job.

As part of the recruitment process we will check our records for information we hold about you in relation to your suitability for the post for which you have applied.

Disclosure and Barring Service

Successful applicants will be asked to apply for a Criminal Record Check (Disclosure) from the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Please check the Job Description and Person Specification to identify the level of check required for the position for which you are applying.

A copy of the Disclosure and Barring Service Code of Practice is available on request.

Further information about the Disclosure process can be found at

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/disclosure-and-barring-service>

I certify that the details on this application form and any supplementary information attached are true as far as I know. I understand that if I give false information or withhold relevant information, it could result in my dismissal.
